Enclosure to H.M.S. GANGES No. 870/22 of 16th February, 1954.)

BLAKE DIVISIONAL OFFICE,

B.3186 Boy Wilson

H.M.S. GANGES.

2nd February, 1953.

Dear Mr. Wilson,

Thank you for your letter of 21st January.

I am glad to say that John has now settled down well, and no longer wishes to leave the Navy. I agree with you that his trouble was mainly homesickness. He should do well now.

He is anxious, however, about his mother's health and I am sorry to hear that your wife has not been well recently. I trust that she has now recovered, and if this is the case, would you please inform John of this, as your wife's illness is his only remaining worry.

John appears to be a promising swimmer. If he keeps it up, he should do well at this sport.

Yours sincerely,

(S.D.) C.F. JAMES

Lieutenant, Royal Navy
